MAY 12th, 1757. [Numb. 1194.]

The SOUTH-CAROLINA Gazette.

To the Honourable HENRY ELLIS, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, of the Province of GEORGIA.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Town and District of Savannah. [Which was signed and delivered by their Representatives.]

May it please Your Honour,

IN the Name of the Freeholders of the Town and District of Savannah, We have the Honour to congratulate You on Your safe Arrival in this Province, as Governor. From a Gentleman of Your amiable Qualifications, new Georgia! may hope to reap singular Advantages: In this our relieved State, we wish for a full and free Representation of the People in General Assembly, that such Laws may be therein framed and presented for Your Assent, as will co-operate with Your zealous Study for our Welfare, and enable Your Honour to say, to Commerce and the Planting Interest, again raise your drooping Heads; Strifes and Contentions, be ye no longer heard of; thus joining Hand in Hand, to manifest our Duty to the best of Kings, by furthering the Prosperity and Increase of His Majesty's Southern Frontier Province.

This Work, how beauteous in Perspective! how glorious, complicated! how fraught with every Blessing! seems reserved by Providence, to be the Statue of Your Administration: And, notwithstanding the Difficulties under which, we are sensible, You engage therein (from the present Alarms and Dangers on the Continent) yet, Sir, be assured, our Aid shall not be wanting; and we will pray for Your Success, and that Your Honour's Attention to the true Interests of the Province, may eternize Your Name in the Annals of Georgia, by the distinguished Appellation of Father of the Country.

The Governor's ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

SO affectionate an Address from the Freeholders of the Town and District of Savannah, is infinitely agreeable to me: Would to God my Abilities were equal to my Inclinations! I should not then despair of justifying the very kind and partial Sentiments you are pleased to entertain of me. The Circumstances of this Province, afford an ample Field to exercise the best Talents, and I, who am fully sensible of my own Deficiencies, cannot but approve, and join in, your Wishes, that I may have every possible Assistance in the great Work that lays before me; for the obtaining of which, and the Accomplishment of your Desires and Expectations, you may intirely depend no Endeavour of mine shall be neglected that Prudence can warrant.

CHARLES-TOWN, May 5.

THIS laudable Spirit for military Acquirements hath lately become so general in this Province, that they now begin to be considered as a Part of polite Education, and at several of the Schools the manual Exercise is already introduced; at George Town in particular, we are told, the Indian Society's Scholars perform to Admiration —At some Hunting Clubs in the Country, firing at a Target is practiced, and they load with Cartridges and fire, from two to three Times in a Minute. — Besides the Association for an Artillery Company, a Military Club hath sprung up, (and several smaller Societies of the same Nature), upon which Plan some Gentlemen in different Parts of the Country, who are thoroughly sensible of the Want of Drill-Masters and Adjutants, (we are well assured,) are forming themselves into military Societies and have already applied to proper Persons to instruct them. — The Hon. Colonel of the Charles-Town Regiment has given the said Regiment printed Instructions for exercising of Cannon, and they are to be exercised accordingly, very soon. —And, we hear, that some of the Inhabitants of this Town, to whom it would not be so convenient to pay Instructors, (resolved not to be out done by the Military Club) intend to meet on Saturday Afternoons, once or twice a Month, to improve each other in the manual Exercise, &c. — From such a Spirit prevailing, and a well-arm'd and well regulated Militia, with good Fortifications in every Part where requisite, how secure may we not reckon Ourselves against the Attempts of Enemies! but, where these things are all wanting, (which, without Doubt, is the Case in some Places) how deplorable must be the Situation of the People! how precarious their Property! and how uncertain the Enjoyment of their Religion, LIBERTY, &c!

'Tis now certain, that a Body of regular Troops have been designed to be sent to this Province and to Georgia; but as they are not yet arrived, 'tis not improbable, that the Exigency of Affairs has required their D[illegible] ered.

'Tis

It is ſaid, that, leſt our Enemies Privateers ſhould, during the preſent Summer, attempt to land upon and plunder any Plantations on the Sea Shore, one or two Troops of Rangers will be raiſed and properly ſtationed, ſo as repel ſuch Attempts, or alarm the Inhabitants whenever they appear on the Coaſt, by certain Signals to be appointed.

Our laſt Letters from Georgia, mention Governor ELLIS's being gone to view the Situations of Midway, Hardwicke, and Frederica: And, that the General Aſſembly of that Province, which ſtood prorogued, was further prorogued to the 25th inſtant.

On Sunday laſt put in here, to careen and fit out for another Cruize, the Privateer Sloop Weaſel, of New York, commanded by Capt. Jones.

ANNAPOLIS, March 10.

WE have certain information, that a few days ago, 17 of the Cherokee Indians, part of a party of 40, brought into Augusta in Virginia, five ſcalps of the enemy, and one French lad about 16 years old, a priſoner; and it is ſaid, that they gave an account that the remainder of the party were coming in, with ſcalps.

New-York, March 7. Saturday night laſt returned here from a cruize, the privateer ſcooner Charming Peggy, Richard Haddon commander, having taken as many prizes during her cruize as ſhe could well man. On the 23d of December laſt, he took a fine large French brig, as ſhe was going from Miſſiſippi to Cape-Francois, there to be made a cruizer of, called La Felicite, Pierre Beaſſo maſter. On the 27th of January, off Cape Cruize, he ſeized a French privateer, called La Fortune, M. Banard maſter, and retook a ſloop belonging to Connecticut; both which he ordered to Jamaica in caſe of ſeparation. And on the 8th of February, in company with the privateer Jolly Robin, of Bermuda, commanded by Capt. Canton, he took a Spaniſh ſhip of 300 tons, called the Guardaloup, don Philip de la Pedro maſter, carrying 20 carriage guns, and 32 men: She made no reſiſtance, and firſt ſailed from St. Andero to Nants, where ſhe loaded, thence returned to St. Andero, took paſſes, and proceeded on her voyage; and was ſeized by the aforeſaid privateers, juſt entering Porto-Prince on Hiſpaniola.

The French brig, and Spaniſh ſhip, both arrived here on ſaturday.

New-York, March 14. By a letter from Albany, received ſince our laſt, we learn, that a man was juſt arrived from the Senneka country, where he ſaw ſeveral French Indians, that were juſt come in there from Canada, with preſents, and a large quantity of powder and ball, in order to diſtribute the ſame amongſt all the Indians that were willing to take up the hatchet againſt the Engliſh; that two Engliſh priſoners were lately brought from Canada to the Senneka country for ſale; and that ſeveral Indians had actually ſet out from thence, with a deſign to captivate and murder the inhabitants of this and the neighbouring provinces.

Yeſterday arrived here a French prize of near 300 tons, called La Fidelle, M. Auguſte Minne late maſter, but came in under the command of Capt. Matthews: She was bound from Rochelle to St. Domingo, mounting 12 four-pounders, carried a letter of marque, had 30 marines, beſides 12 Engliſh priſoners, and 131 French ſoldiers on board, and was taken the 6th of February laſt by the 3 following privateers, viz. the Prince of Orange, Capt. Dixon, the Defiance, Capt. Fones, and the Peggy, Capt. Cloſs. She fought the privateers 3 glaſſes, and is chiefly loaded with bale goods. The French ſoldiers they put on board a Spaniſh ſloop they had brought too the day before, bound to Porto-Prince.

Capt. Matthews informs us, that two days after they took the foregoing prize, the ſame privateers fell in with a large French ſhip and ſloop, bound from Bourdeaux to St. Domingo, both which they took; that on the 10th in the morning, they took another large French ſhip, bound alſo from Bourdeaux to St. Domingo; and that the Prince of Orange and Defiance were left in chaſe of two other French ſhips, which they were in no doubt of taking.

Philadelphia, March 17. On monday laſt lord Loudoun arrived here from New York, when the guns of the Aſſociation battery, and of the veſſels in the harbour were fired, and the bells were rung.

Williamſburg, March 18. This week arrived in town 25 Cherokee Indians, with 5 ſcalps, taken this winter near fort du Queſne. There are alſo come to town, 29 Catawbas, with king Heigler: They left 90 of their people in Lunenberg county, marching directly for fort Cumberland, where, as ſoon as they have finiſhed their buſineſs with the council, they propoſe to meet them.

Williamſburg, April 1. Yeſterday his honour our governor, accompanied by his excellency governor Dobbs, arrived here in good health from Philadelphia.

On monday laſt lieut. Baker arrived here with 39 Tuſkaroras, 13 Nottoways, 7 Meherrins, and 2 Sapponys, to whom his honour the preſident, with ſome gentlemen of the council, gave an audience the next day, when thoſe Indians expreſſed themſelves very warmly in behalf of their brethren the Engliſh, ſeemed ſenſibly touched with the cruelties and barbarities committed by the French and their Indians on the frontiers of this colony, which they were now come with a full reſolution to avenge, or die in the attempt. They are ſupplied with blankets, &c. and are expected to ſet off this day to join our forces at fort Cumberland.

New-bern, April 15. Laſt friday evening his excellency the governor arrived in town, in good health, from Philadelphia, where he has been at the congreſs held there by lord Loudoun, with the ſeveral governors on the continent; and next day he was pleaſed to iſſue his proclamation for the meeting of the general aſſembly, which is to be held here on the 13th of May next, for the diſpatch of public buſineſs.

This day his excellency was pleaſed alſo to iſſue his proclamation, ſtrictly enjoining and commanding the 18*th of* May next to be kept and obſerved as a ſolemn day of faſting and humiliation, to humble ourſelves before God, and to deprecate his judgments for our manifold ſins and tranſgreſſions againſt his divine laws.

LONDON, February 3.

THE Anti-Gallican and her prize, the French Eaſt India ſhip, are ſuppoſed to be arrived at Gibraltar; they were off Liſbon bar, but contrary winds would not admit their entering into that port, and ſo they bore away.

CHARLES-TOWN, May 14.

ON Friday laſt put in here, the Snow Sukey, Capt. John Stodart, from Jamaica for London, having met with very bad Weather, and ſprung a Leak.

The ſame Night came in the North Poſt, by which we have Advice of the Condemnation of both Capts. Fenton and Jones's Prizes, ſent into Cape Fear. That the Privateer Brigt. Hawk fitted out there, commanded by Capt Thomas Wright, being well manned, &c. was to ſail from thence as laſt Thurſday, upon her Cruize: And that the Frantzina Sloop, was near ready to ſail, on the ſame Account —— By this Poſt, we have alſo an Account of the Arrival of Admiral Weſt's Squadron at Halifax, &c. for which pleaſe look into the SUPPLEMENT.

On Saturday laſt ſail'd for Halifax, the Winchelſea and Jamaica Men of War.

The ſame Day, the Military Club met on the Parade, for the firſt Time, and went thro' the Manual Exerciſe, Evolutions, &c. with great Dexterity and Applauſe; after which no leſs than 21 Gentlemen applied to be, and were, admitted Members; and then they agreed, to meet on the Firſt and Third Thurſdays in every Month, at 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon during the Summer Seaſon, and at 3 in the Winter.

On Monday arrived Capt. Roberts from Providence, by whom we have the following Advices, viz. That the Cargo and Specie on board the Snow Prince Cornelia, being adjudged French Property, were condemned; as was alſo, the Sloop Laurentia: That a Virginia Privateer had ſent in there, a Rhode Iſland Veſſel, laden with Horſes, Proviſions, &c. which ſhe took juſt entering a French Port: That this Veſſel had ſpoke with the Cockſpur Privateer, of Georgia, commanded by Capt. Brannock, who had a 5 Hours Engagement with, and ſeveral Times boarded, a French Privateer Schooner, of ſuperior Force, off Cape François, which killed 3 of his Men and wounded ſeven more, and ſo terribly maul'd the Cockſpur, that while they repaired her Sails and Rigging, the Frenchman eſcaped, and got ſafe into the Cape: Brannock ſoon after met with ſome New-York Privateers, who ſupplied him with every Thing he ſtood in Need of: That the Greyhound Privateer, of Montſerrat, commanded by Capt Donovan, was arrived there, and made 7 Prizes during his Cruize, the laſt of them a Privateer of 8 Swivel Guns with 36 Men: That a Fifth Privateer, call'ed the Peſky, commanded by Capt. Henderſon, was fitted out and ſail'd on a Cruize from thence; and one more fitting, to be commanded by Capt. Joſeph Thompſon; both which Veſſels had been French Privateers: That ſince the Arrival of Men of War au Cap and our Privateers have quitted the Coaſt, French Veſſels ſail as uſual to and from all Ports of Hiſpaniola: And, that between the 1ſt and 10th of April, there had been taken and carried into Port au Prince, a large Snow, laden with King's Stores, from Antigua for Jamaica, by a French Privateer of 4 Guns and 18 Men, 4 Snows and Briggs from Philadelphia, and as many Schooners and Sloops from Rhode Iſland and other North-American Ports.

We have alſo Advice, that a large Philadelphia-built Brigg is fitting out at Port au Paix, purpoſely to cruize upon this Coaſt, mounting 16 Six Pounders and carrying 200 Men, beſides a large Philadelphia built Schooner, from which the French promiſe themſelves great Succeſs: But, they may have reckoned without their Hoſt, if it is true, that this Government is going to fit out or employ two or three ſtout Veſſels, to keep the Coaſt clear, in which Caſe we hope to ſee the Meſſieurs ſafely brought in here.

The laſt Advices from Georgia, are, that Governor Ellis was returned from his late Tour to the Southern Parts of that Province, highly pleaſed with the Country, and in good Health: And, that he had thought fit further to prorogue the General Aſſembly to the middle of June.

SUPPLEMENT TO
The SOUTH-CAROLINA Gazette.
[Numb. 1192.] MAY 12th, 1757.

WILLIAMSBURG, in VIRGINIA, April 15.

Yesterday the General Assembly of this Colony met at Capitol in this City, when his Honour the Governor opened the Session with the following Speech.

Gentlemen of the Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

THE general welfare making it necessary for the Southern governors to meet the right honourable the earl of Loudoun at Philadelphia, to concert measures for the protection of their several colonies, my absence from hence, for that purpose has deferred the time of this session's meeting, which I would have otherwise accommodated more to your convenience.

I shall cause to be presented to you, a letter from his lordship to the council, mr. speaker, and the gentlemen of the house of burgesses, as also the plan agreed on by his lordship and the governors for protection of the Southern colonies, during the time he is executing a plan of operations to the Northward, agreed to, and recommended by his majesty —Duty, gratitude and affection, to our most excellent sovereign, and the most animating earnestness for your country's preservation (your wonted motive) now urge you to effectuate, by every method on your parts for the general service.

Lord Loudoun returns you thanks for your kind vote of £ 8000 for raising recruits for the Royal American regiment, which he will not fail to represent at home in the very handsome manner it deserves.

Gentlemen of the house of burgesses,

The vigorous methods that our gracious king is pursuing for our deliverance from the public enemy at a vast expence, and a very large armament now happily arrived at Halifax in Nova Scotia, call on you, in the strongest manner, to contribute, even to the utmost of your ability, such supplies as the exigencies of our affairs demand, and lord Loudoun may reasonably expect, from the readiness and liberality wherewith his lordship has hitherto found all his requisitions complied with in the colonies to the Northward, and the zeal you, gentlemen, have already manifested for his majesty's service, on former occasions.

The weight of the public burthen, and the part you bear, I am by no means insensible of; but let us remember, that the end proposed is worthy of the means, tho' dear bought in the purchase that it is invaluable in the acquisition; and it is a lesson of experience, that an ill judged parsimony, proves in the end, the most fatal extravagance.

It is with concern that I find the money formerly granted, for raising and supporting the Virginia regiment, is all expended; and yet there are great arrears due to the officers and soldiers in the country's service: You will undoubtedly receive an account of the disposal of these monies, from the persons you entrusted therewith; and if there has been any misconduct, from their being unacquainted with these affairs, as new and unusual among us, you may, for the future, point out a more frugal oeconomy in the public expences, in which and in all things for the public service, I shall readily join and assist you.

I have ordered col. Washington to attend you, with a proper account of the arrears due; and I shall endeavour to lay before you an estimate of the aid necessary for the succeeding year, which, I doubt not, you will make suitable provision for.

The particular affairs of the dominion having been long unadjusted, thro' many unavoidable avocations, I must now recommend them to your attention.

Gentlemen of the council, mr speaker, and gentlemen of the house of burgesses.

I take this opportunity of acquainting you, that my health is so much impaired, that I cannot transact the duties of my appointment in so proper a manner as, I think, they require; I have therefore wrote home for leave to resign my trust, and I have reason to expect that liberty soon: And as I probably may not have the pleasure of meeting you again in a legislative capacity, I desire to assure you of my sincere and hearty regard for this dominion; and if I can be of any use to the country at home, I chearfully offer my service, and I shall, at all times, embrace every opportunity in my power for the good of the country.

Gentlemen, The pressing occasions of the public, made still more urgent by the advanced season of the year, bespeak your most earnest attention to the present conjuncture, and the quickest dispatch; both most happily to be attained by unanimity and application, which, therefore, gentlemen, I desire to recommend to you, with such persuasive prevalence, as I should always solicit your perpetual prosperity and happiness.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia, dated March 28th, 1757.

"—— Yesterday his excellency the earl of Loudoun left this place for New York; and on the road was met by an express from Sir Charles Hardy, advising, that by an express just arrived from Halifax, he had the agreeable news of admiral Holburne's arrival there with 15 sail of the line, and a great number of transports, having on board Six regiments. And by an express from major Eyre, the commanding officer at fort William Henry, we have the following account: That in the night, between the 18th and 19th, that fort had been attacked by a body of 1500 French and Indians, but were repulsed; —that the night following they had made a more vigorous attack than the first, when they were a second time repulsed; —the morning following, the governor of Canada's son, the commanding officer of the enemy, sent to summon the garrison to surrender, and they should be treated as prisoners of war; which if they refused to accept of, he could not answer for the inhumanity that might be committed by the Indians; to which major Eyre replied, he valued not their threats; if they took the fort, he was regardless what became of himself, but was determined to defend it to the last. General Abercrombie left New York immediately on arrival of the express from major Eyre, to take upon him the command of the fort. If they should make a second attempt, they will meet with a very warm reception."

Last saturday arrived from the Northward, the hon. Roman Atkin, Esq; his majesty's agent and superintendant of the affairs of the several nations of Indians on the frontiers of this, and the other more Southern colonies, and one of his majesty's council in South Carolina. — We are informed, that while that gentleman was at New York, there was a meeting of the Six Nations at fort Johnson in the Mohawk country, to which he was invited, and was so well received by them, that they returned him thanks for coming there, and entrusted him with the negociating some matters for them with the Southern nations; at which time also, several things were concerted between Sir William Johnson and Mr. Atkin, for the general good of all the British colonies in North America, with respect to the Indians in their several departments.
